This Week's Activities

In the Shadow of Sorrow: A Catholic Response to Violence Against Children and Sacred Spaces

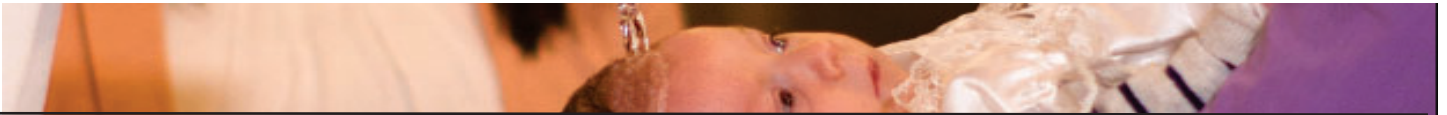

This week, our hearts are heavy with grief following the tragic shooting at Annunciation Catholic School in Minneapolis. As a community of faith, we mourn the loss of two young lives and pray fervently for the healing of the injured and the comfort of all affected.

Such violence—especially when it strikes children and sacred places of worship—is not only a societal crisis but a spiritual wound. The Catholic Church teaches that every human life is sacred, created in the image of God, and deserving of protection and dignity. When violence enters our sanctuaries and harms the most vulnerable among us, it is a desecration of both life and holiness.

Let us come together in prayer and solidarity.

May we be instruments of healing in a broken world, and may the light of Christ shine through our sorrow.

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORD AND LIVING OUR FAITH EACH DAY

August 31, 2025
22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:
IN NEED AND BLESSED

© Clare Colella

As I read today's Scriptures several themes seemed to shine forth. Humility was the first theme that arose. But then, with reflection, it became an awareness that the scriptures are asking us to be simply attentive, fully aware of the larger picture and our place in relation to God and others. Humility is often misunderstood – it is not putting yourself down or putting your gifts to the side. It is more like thanking God for who you are and what you are able to do.

When Pope Francis was elected he startled the world with his simplicity in asking people to pray for him. Reflecting on the Scriptures for this Sunday, I am reminded of him and the example of humility and simplicity he has given throughout his life as a leader and minister to God's people. The call to holiness is also a call to serve others. In humility we are attentive to one another. Pope Leo continues in a similar spirit of giving thanks to God for the gifts that have been given to him. The call to holiness is also a call to serve others.

The Gospel this Sunday speaks of the people who are to be invited to the banquet – the image of heaven, of God's chosen. It is the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind – and those who hear the message of Jesus are told they will be blessed in the company of all these. Each of us has an unfinished aspect (or two) in our lives, some way we still need to grow in wisdom, grace and goodness. Conversion is an on-going experience in our lives – God calls us each to an ever-deepening relationship. We acknowledge that we are imperfect, and therefore can lay claim to God's care, protection, guidance and grace. When we journey with others we discover that their strength supports us in our weakness, and their hunger for faith can nourish our own. We also discover that our gifts may help one another and others have gifts to share.

Each of us – whether poor (in whatever way that may be), weak and needy in spirit or body, recognizing our limitations and imperfections – is not only a chosen one of God. We have been chosen to share the journey of faith and growth with one another. Let us hold one another in grateful prayer and support as we share this journey.

THE WORD OF THE LORD

"The word of the Lord" is spoken by the reader at the close of the proclamation of readings other than the Gospel at every Mass, a reminder that we have heard something sacred and special. For centuries, communities of faith, Christian and Jewish, have gathered to hear the Word of God. We share with our Jewish sisters and brothers the Word of the Hebrew Covenant (Old Testament) and recall that our Christian roots are anchored in the Jewish faith celebrated by Jesus and his first disciples. The New Testament – the Gospels, the Acts of the Apostles, Letters and Book of Revelation – are unique to our Christian communities and comprise the balance of the Bible.

The table of the Lord in Liturgy is twofold – the Table of the Word and the Table of the Eucharist. Another way of thinking about the "table": the Gospel today speaks of the banquet table, of persons who seek a place at the table. The blessing of the liturgical "table" is that it does not matter where you are: each person is welcomed to the table, and receives what is offered according to their readiness to receive. Those who have been Catholic for many years have heard these same Scriptures proclaimed several times, and may be familiar with them through our own reading and reflection. Yet, something new strikes us and seems to mean something not thought of before. Each time we come to the table of the Word, it is WE who have changed, who may have a different perspective or need or reason to give thanks. And still, the Word of the Lord speaks to us where we are on our life's journey.

A particular reading may not be meaningful at the time, but all the readings together, the psalm and the homily and our personal reflection can weave a powerful message of comfort, challenge or affirmation. Having our own personal missal, a SUNDAY MISSAL, or a missal subscription like GIVE US THIS DAY, LIVING WITH CHRIST, or MAGNIFICAT can give us handy access to the Word and prayers of the Mass throughout the week as we continue to reflect on the Scriptures we have heard. The print resources have additional reflections, prayers and information, and help us prepare to receive the gift of the Word at the upcoming Liturgy.

VIRGEN DEL COBRE

Por esta época recordamos la natividad de María, madre de Jesús. María es muy popular entre muchos pueblos y en especial en los pueblos latinos. Al principio del mes de septiembre dos naciones toman la fiesta de su nacimiento para recordarla bajo el título de la Virgen de la Caridad del Cobre en Cuba y de Nuestra Señora de Coromoto en Venezuela. La Virgen del Cobre fue descubierta en el siglo XVI por dos indígenas y un niño africano llamados los tres Juanes, cuando estos fueron al mar en busca de sal. Después de una fuerte tempestad ellos encontraron flotando sobre las olas una pequeña imagen de María con el Niño Dios en brazos. La imagen flotaba sobre una tabla que decía yo soy la Virgen de la Caridad. Milagrosamente la imagen estaba seca. También en el siglo XVI la Virgen se le apareció al cacique de los indígenas Coromoto en Venezuela. Estos resistían la evangelización y ella se apareció sobre las aguas invitándolos al bautizo cristiano. Estas dos manifestaciones marianas llevan a Jesús en brazos recordándonos que María nada puede sin Cristo.

EN LA NECESIDAD Y BENDECIDOS

Al leer las Escrituras de hoy, varios temas parecieron resplandecer. La humildad fue el primero que surgió. Pero luego, al reflexionar, se hizo evidente que las Escrituras nos invitan simplemente a estar atentos, plenamente conscientes del panorama más amplio y de nuestro lugar en relación con Dios y con los demás. La humildad a menudo se malinterpreta: no se trata de menospreciarse ni de dejar de lado los propios dones. Es más bien agradecer a Dios por quien eres y por lo que eres capaz de hacer.

Cuando el Papa Francisco fue elegido, sorprendió al mundo con su sencillez al pedir a la gente que rezara por él. Al reflexionar sobre las Escrituras de este domingo, me viene a la mente él y el ejemplo de humildad y simplicidad que ha dado a lo largo de su vida como líder y ministro del pueblo de Dios. El llamado a la santidad es también un llamado a servir a los demás. En la humildad, estamos atentos unos a otros. El Papa León continúa en un espíritu similar, dando gracias a Dios por los dones que le han sido concedidos. El llamado a la santidad es también un llamado a servir a los demás.

El Evangelio de este domingo habla de las personas que deben ser invitadas al banquete: la imagen del cielo, de los elegidos de Dios. Son los pobres, los lisiados, los cojos y los ciegos —y a quienes escuchan el mensaje de Jesús se les dice que serán bendecidos en compañía de todos ellos. Cada uno de nosotros tiene algún aspecto inconcluso (o más de uno) en su vida, alguna manera en la que aún necesita crecer en sabiduría, gracia y bondad. La conversión es una experiencia continua en nuestras vidas: Dios nos llama a cada uno a una relación cada vez más profunda. Reconocemos que somos imperfectos, y por lo tanto podemos reclamar el cuidado, la protección, la guía y la gracia de Dios. Cuando caminamos con otros, descubrimos que su fortaleza nos sostiene en nuestra debilidad, y que su hambre de fe puede alimentar la nuestra. También descubrimos que nuestros dones pueden ayudar a los demás, y que otros tienen dones para compartir.

Cada uno de nosotros —ya sea pobre (de cualquier manera que eso signifique), débil y necesitado en espíritu o cuerpo, reconociendo nuestras limitaciones e imperfecciones— no solo es un elegido de Dios. Hemos sido elegidos para compartir el camino de la fe y el crecimiento con los demás. Mantengámonos unidos en oración agradecida y apoyo mutuo mientras compartimos este camino.

SOBERBIA

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Taking the Lowest Place

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus was watching to see where the people sat when they were guests at a dinner. Some people thought they were important so they sat in the more important places. Jesus saw that they were proud, so He taught them about being humble.

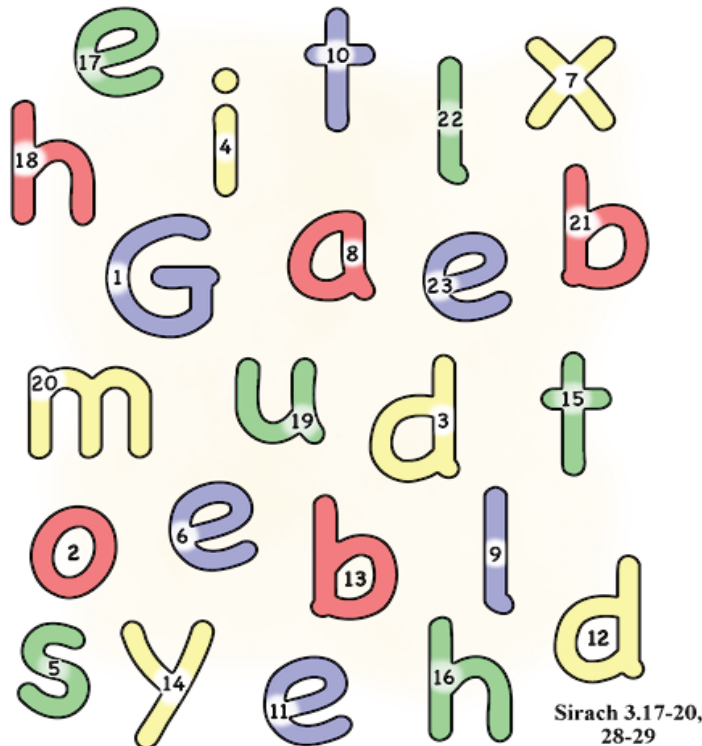

When we are proud we think that we are more important than other people, and that we deserve to have better things. We start to look down on everyone else, and pretty soon we start thinking that God isn't so great either!

Being humble means knowing that we really are not all that important, even if we are better at some things than other people or have more money or more important jobs. It means we know that God gave us these things to help others, not so that we could be proud about them. We can only give glory to God when we are humble.

True or False: How to be Humble

What did Jesus say? Some of these are true and some aren't. Can you figure out which is which?

1. If you know that you are an important guest then you should sit in the place of honour. True or False?
2. If you go to a wedding feast and sit in a place of honour, someone more important might come and you will have to move to a lower place. True or False?
3. If you sit in a lower place, then the one who invited you will tell you to sit in a more important place and you will be honoured. True or False?
4. Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled and everyone who humbles himself will be exalted. True or False?
5. When you have a dinner, you should invite the most important people so that they will invite you back. True or False?
6. If you are having a banquet or dinner, you should invite the poor and crippled people who can't invite you back. True or False?
7. If you invite the poor and crippled people to your dinner, you will never be repaid. True or False?
